DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-158 are presented for examination.

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

2. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 04/17/2006 has been entered.

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1-158 provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 1-42 of copending Application No. 09/869,513. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not yet been patented.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the referenced copending application and would be covered by any patent granted on that copending application since the referenced copending application and the instant application are claiming common subject matter.

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant would be prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application in the other copending application. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968). See also MPEP § 804.

5. "A later patent claim is not patentably distinct from an earlier patent claim if the later claim is obvious over, or anticipated by, the earlier claim. In re Longi, 759 F.2d at 896, 225 USPQ at 651 (affirming a holding of obviousness-type double patenting because the claims at issue were obvious over claims in four prior art patents); In re Berg, 140 F.3d at 1437, 46 USPQ2d at 1233 (Fed. Cir. 1998) (Affirming a holding of obviousness-type double patenting where a patent application claim to a genus is anticipated by a patent claim to a species within that genus). " ELI LILLY AND COMPANY v BARR LABORATORIES, INC., United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, ON PETITION FOR REHEARING EN BANC (DECIDED: May 30, 2001).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

7. Claims 1-158 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Salesky et al. (6,343,313) (hereinafter Salesky).

8. As per claim 1, Salesky discloses a method for conducting at least one convention, by facilitating the exchange between at least one meeting planner client and at least one attendee client wherein this exchange is accomplished with web browser computers at the clients, with program instructions on central website server comprising the steps of:

a. receiving, from the at least one meeting planner client (col 29, lines 62-63 and col 30, lines 15-24, potential conferee), and electronically storing in convention databases at a central website server (col 9, lines 64-67, col 30, lines 15-24), program instruction control parameters (record a session for later playback, col 9, lines 64-67) and convention content information for a plurality of conventions (record a session for later playback, col 24, lines 66-67 – col 35, lines 1-10, and col 29, lines 34-37, several meetings);

b. receiving at the central website server from the at least one attendee client a selection for convention content information of one convention from the plurality of conventions (17,15, fig 2, col 8, lines 34-41); and

c. processing the selection using the program instructions and control parameters (to determine that a client has sufficient computing resources requires processing of control parameters, example would be display bit-depth, bandwidth etc., col 2, lines 66-67; col 3, lines 1-23; lines 50-58); and

d. releasing from the central website to the at least one attendee client the selected convention content information (record presentation or lecture or video-mail, 17,14, fig 2, col 7, lines 10-20; col 8, lines 34-45, server provides information that allows attendee client conferencing software to start and connect to the conference).

9. As per claim 2, Salesky discloses the at least one meeting planner client is a plurality of meeting planner clients (col 30, lines 15-24 and col 8 lines 35-45).

10. As per claim 3, Salesky discloses at least one attendee client is a plurality of attendee clients (col 8, lines 35-45).

11. As per claim 4, Salesky discloses the convention content information is cyber-based (col 8, lines 35-45, www browser).

12. As per claim 5, Salesky discloses the convention content information is one of cyber-based and venue-based (col 8, lines 34-45, www browser).

13. As per claim 6, Salesky discloses the step of storing in a relational database cross-referencing fields from the meeting planner client to allow for the holding of an unlimited number of conventions (col 29, lines 34-41 and col 30, lines 15-30).

14. As per claim 7, Salesky discloses the steps of receiving at the central website a search request from the attendee client for certain convention content information and releasing to the attendee client information satisfying the search request (17,14, fig 2, col 8, lines 34-45, server provides information that allows attendee client conferencing software to start and connect to the conference).

15. As per claim 8, Salesky discloses the steps of receiving at the central website from the attendee client information necessary to register for the convention. (col 8, lines 34-46, being told)

16. As per claim 9, Salesky discloses the step of using attendee client information to alert attendee clients of future conventions that may be of interest to them (col 8, lines 34-36, being told).

17. As per claim 10, Salesky discloses the step of receiving at the central website, from at least one exhibitor client, convention search, selection and registration information for at least one convention (col 8, lines 30-35, presenter and attendee client, conference listing).

18. As per claim 11, Salesky discloses the at least one exhibitor client is a plurality of exhibitor clients (col 8, lines 30-35, presenter and attendee client, conference listing).

19. As per claim 12, Salesky discloses the step of storing cross-referencing fields from the convention content information in a relational database to allow an unlimited number of exhibitor clients (col 29, lines 34-41 and col 30, lines 15-30).

20. As per claim 13, Salesky discloses the step of receiving at the central website server (14, fig 1) from the meeting planner client session content information (14, 17, fig 2, col 8, lines 45-54).

21. As per claim 14, Salesky discloses the steps of receiving at the central website server (14, fig 1) a request for certain client session content information from the attendee client for and releasing to the attendee client information satisfying the search request (14, 17, fig 2, col 8, lines 45-54).

22. As per claim 15, Salesky discloses the session content information is cyber-based (col 8, line 39, www browser).

23. As per claim 16, Salesky discloses the session content information is one of cyber-based and venue-based (col 8, line 39, www browser).

24. As per claim 17, Salesky discloses the step of providing attendee client participation in the session (fig 8B, col 8, lines 55-57).

25. As per claim 18 Salesky discloses the step of receiving at the central website server (14, fig 1) a search request from the attendee client for session information and releasing to the attendee client such information. (14,17, fig 2, col 8, lines 30-35).

26. As per claim 19, Salesky discloses the step of receiving at the central website server (14, fig 1) from the attendee client information necessary to register for the session (col 8, lines 30-37, finding or being told).

27. As per claim 20, Salesky discloses step of receiving at the central website server (14, fig 1) from an exhibitor client exhibit content information including exhibit booth design and content (col 11, lines 13-18, and lines 55-59, booths are created by graphics).

28. As per claim 21, Salesky discloses the exhibit content information is cyber-based (col 8, lines 35-45, www browser).

29. As per claim 22, Salesky discloses exhibit content information is one of cyber-based and venue-based (col 8, lines 35-45, www browser).

30. As per claim 23, the claim is rejected for the same reasons as claims 1 and 20, above.

31. As per claim 24 the claim is rejected for the same reasons as claims 1 and 20, above.

32. As per claim 25, the claim is rejected for the same reasons as claims 1 and 20, above.

33. As per claim 26, the claim is rejected for the same reasons as claims 1 and 7, above.

34. As per claim 27, the claim is rejected for the same reasons as claims 1 and 20, above.

35. As per claim 28, Salesky discloses the step of receiving at the central website from the meeting planner paper presentation content information (col 7, lines 10-17, lecture).

36. As per claim 29, Salesky discloses the paper presentation content information is cyber-based (col 8, lines 35-45, www browser).

37. As per claim 30, Salesky discloses the paper presentation content information is one of either cyber-based or venue-based (col 8, lines 35-45, www browser).

38. As per claim 31, Salesky discloses the step of releasing to the attendee client paper presentation content information (col 7, lines 10-17, lecture).

39. As per claim 32, Salesky discloses the step of receiving at the central website server (14, fig 1) from the meeting planner meeting proceedings content information (col 7, lines 10-17, lecture).

40. As per claim 33, Salesky discloses the meeting proceedings content information is cyber-based (col 8, lines 35-45, www browser).

41. As per claim 34, Salesky discloses the meeting proceedings content information is one of cyber-based and venue-based (col 8, lines 35-45, www browser).

42. As per claim 35, Salesky discloses the step of releasing to the attendee client meeting proceedings content information. (col 8, lines 30-35, presenter and attendee client, conference listing)

43. As per claim 36, Salesky discloses the step of receiving at the central website server (14, fig 1) from the meeting planner cyber broadcast content information (col 7, lines 10-20).

44. As per claim 37, Salesky discloses the step of releasing to the attendee client cyber broadcast content information (col 8, lines 35-45, www browser).

45. As per claim 38, Salesky discloses a plurality of conventions are facilitated from the central website server (14, fig 1, col 8, lines 30-40).

46. As per claim 39, the claim is rejected for the same reasons as claim 1, above. In addition Salesky discloses c) receiving at the central website server (14, fig 1) from the attendee client information necessary to register for the convention (14,17, fig 2); e) releasing from the central website server (14, fig 1) to the at least one attendee client the selected convention content information (col 8, lines 30-35).

Response to Arguments

51. Applicant's arguments filed 04/17/2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive, therefore rejections to claims 1-158 is maintained.

52. Examiner has cited particular columns and line numbers in the references as applied to the claims above for the convenience of the applicant. Although the specified citations are representative of the teachings of the art and are applied to the specific limitations within the individual claim, other passages and figures may apply as well. It is respectfully requested from the applicant in preparing responses, to fully consider the references in entirety as potentially teaching all or part of the claimed invention, as well as the context of the passage as taught by the prior art or disclosed by the Examiner.

53. In response to applicant's arguments, the recitation a method for conducting at least one convention, by facilitating the exchange between at least one meeting planner client and at least one attendee client wherein this exchange is accomplished with web browser computers at the clients, with program instructions on central website server comprising the steps of:

has not been given patentable weight because the recitation occurs in the preamble. A preamble is generally not accorded any patentable weight where it merely recites the purpose of a process or the intended use of a structure, and where the body of the claim does not depend on the preamble for completeness but, instead, the process steps or structural limitations are able to stand alone. See In re Hirao, 535 F.2d 67, 190 USPQ 15 (CCPA 1976) and Kropa v. Robie, 187 F.2d 150, 152, 88 USPQ 478, 481 (CCPA 1951).

54. In the remarks applicants argued that:

55. Argument: Salesky does not disclose a method for conducting at least one convention, by facilitating the exchange between at least one meeting planner client and at least one attendee client wherein this exchange is accomplished with web browser computers at the clients (Initial exchange of information is performed via www using browser, col 8, lines 30-54), with program instructions on central website server comprising the steps of (convention is interpreted as coming together, as a group of people meeting in one place, col 7, lines 1-4, fig 1, 18 a-c, 12).

56. Response: Salesky discloses a method for conducting at least one convention, by facilitating the exchange between at least one meeting planner client and at least one attendee client wherein this exchange is accomplished with web browser computers at the clients (Initial exchange of information is performed via www using browser, col 8, lines 30-54), with program instructions on central website server comprising the steps of (convention is interpreted as coming together, as a group of people meeting in one place, col 7, lines 1-4, fig 1, 18 a-c, 12):

57. In response to applicant's argument that " program instruction control parameter" are employed over 20 times. Nowhere in specification the recited limitation " program instruction control parameter " clearly point out the patentable novelty which applicant thinks the claims present in view of the state of the art disclosed by the references cited or the objections made. Further, reading 20 times " program instruction control parameter", a person of ordinary skill in the art would only interpret a request message from the client to server.

Conclusion

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Mohammad A. Siddiqi whose telephone number is (571) 272-3976. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday -Thursday.
